Every man is like old shoes,

Because they both their soles may lose;

Each wants the other, to be complete,

And both were made to go on feet.

The mending of one I'll leave to you,

The other I'll make as good as new ;

Then of the two, which would you choose,

To be the man, or be his shoes.

NORTH PLAINFIELD PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Has a large Public Building and School on Somerset Street, under the management of Mr. Charles E. Boss, as Principal. This school in its standing compares favorably with all the other schools.

THE PAROCHIAL SCHOOL.

Cor. of Liberty and Sixth St. This school is under the care of the Rev. Mr. Smyth, and in its appointments and course of instruction ranks well with the schools of our City.

THE YOUNG LADIES' SEMINARY.

Beautifully located on W. Seventh Street. Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal. This Seminary in standing is of a high order.

A SCHOOL FOR YOUNG GENTLEMEN.

Is conducted by Professor John Leal with that thoroughness of culture that a certificate of graduation will open the door of any college for admittance.

PRIVATE SCHOOLS.

A private school taught by Misses Scribner and Newton at 303 La Grande Avenue; one by the Misses Roeap at 615 Central Avenue, and one by Miss Fawcett at 25 Washington Avenue, N. P., as a Kindergarten.

A Training and Grammar School for Boys, by Mr. John Dalziel, at 309 East Front Street, completes the list of the more important private schools.

CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Perhaps no Charitable Institution renders greater service to the people than the Board of Health. Such has been their efficiency under the careful inspection of G. W. Endicott, M. D., that the death rate stands the lowest of any city in our State.

MUHLENBERG HOSPITAL.

648 and 650 W. Third St. This Institution for efficiency in giving relief to 150 or more persons within its walls during the past year, certainly commends itself to the philanthropy of all our citizens.

Its medical and surgical staff, embracing nine of our most eminent physicians and surgeons; its clinical course of lectures; its school for trained nurses; its superintendence in all of its appointments by Miss Louise Moss, under the direction of its able Managing Committee, insures the Muhlenberg Hospital to rank among the best institutions in our country.

PLAINFIELD RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

309 W. Second St. This Association numbers among its Officers, Board of Managers, and Executive Committee no less than twenty-five of the most eminent ladies in our City.

Their reports show a yearly disbursement among the poor of many thousands of dollars.

The simple mention of the above facts are sufficient in this place to show its valuable work.

CITIZENS' ORGANIZED AID ASSOCIATION.

Office, 309 W. Second St. This Association is doing a noble work, having for its object the co-operation of all the charities; the repression of pauperism and vagrancy, and by watchful care see that they are almoners only to the needy, and also the promotion of industry, thrift and self-dependence.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

On Jackson Ave., near Westervelt Ave., N. P. Here we find the little family of helpless ones gathered under the matronly care of Mrs. S. A. Hendrickson. I will invite a personal visit to this institution of all the hardhearted people, that they may take an object lesson that will last them as long as they live.

THE SISTERS OF CHARITY.

521 W. Sixth St. These Sisters, in a quiet and unostentatious way, are finding out and relieving many a suffering one, on whom the heavy hand of poverty has been laid. I have not their report, but state from personal knowledge.
